

OUR POPI ACT STATEMENT

At Northlink College, your right to privacy is a human right and is recognised and protected in the South African Constitution and the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (“POPIA”). The privacy of our stakeholders is very important to us; therefore, we can assure you that we will treat your personal information as confidential.

Our communication platforms are securely managed according to business best practices, with access being strictly monitored and controlled.

We hereby wish to grant you the opportunity to unfollow/ unfriend all Northlink College social media platforms should you no longer wish to hear from us.

If you wish to remain active on our communication platforms, no action will be required, and you will continue to receive our communications as normal.

By staying opted in, you agree to receive ongoing-

- information about courses offered at Northlink College;
- information about Placement & Testing, Application, Registration dates, Graduation Dates, Open Day dates;
- news updates, newsletter and other important information.

Please note that you may request access to information on your College profile at any time to inform us of any changes or updates that need to be made to your profile.

You can unsubscribe from our communication at any point in the future by sending a email to info@northlink.co.za.